

REALITIES OF IRISH LIFE.

'A VISIT FROM THE PARNELLITE POLICE.

SHOOTING A COTTAGE TENANT FOR PAYING HIS RENT.

"The Police of the Land League do not attack Landlords alone. They spare neither age nor sex."—Sir Wm. Harcourt.

WORKING MEN.—

This is how honest men are punished for daring to disobey the orders of the League by paying their debts. Will you, then, consent to hand over the lives and the property of your loyal friends in Ireland to the Parnellites, who, as John Bright tells us, have displayed a boundless sympathy for these Criminals and Murderers? If not, then

Vote against Home Rule.

Acc. 97-148 ⑦